

Please reject any attempt to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I have been very pleased with the result of my registering under this provision and am totally opposed to business entities beginning to call me again simply because I had a relationship with them at one time. If I want to talk with them, I can call them, they needn't bother me!